

THE ROLE OF DENIAL AND DISAVOWAL
IN THE CLINICAL NARRATIVE

Carlos Moguillansky¹

Summary

This text deals with the defensive transformations related to the curative effect of psycho-analysis. The disavowal turns into denial when an access to a new level of symbolism occurs. This new narrative realm would allow the thinking and the imaginative playing.

Key words: therapeutic nature, transference, disavowal, denial, narrative.

¹ 1425 Las Heras 3745 11 C, Capital. Tel. 5411 4801 4561. cmoguillansky@gmail.com